About Newlox Gold Ventures Corporation

Newlox Gold Ventures Corp., CSE (LUX), Frankfurt (NGO), is an environmentally and socially responsible company pursuing precious metals and environmental reclamation related business opportunities in Latin America. The Company is working in collaboration with the Norman B. Keevil Institute of Mining Engineering at the University of British Columbia and with its experienced team in Central America has established a waste remediation and gold recovery operation.

Newlox, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Oro Roca SA is applying innovative processing technologies to historical tailings to achieve precious metals extraction and soil remediation. Newlox does not own any properties and does not have reserves or resources. It is not an exploration or mining company. It provides a valuable service to local stakeholders where there exist many historical waste dumps (tailings), which pose social and environmental risks. Newlox is addressing this problem by reprocessing these materials to recover remaining values of minerals and clean up the environment.

The longer-term objective of Newlox Gold Ventures Corp. is to establish a dividend paying enterprise, which will allow its shareholders to participate in equity value growth, share in profits, and contribute to environmental cleanup while setting a high standard of social responsibility.
